Innovations & Transparent Culture

How have you found Construction Sector in India.

Construction Industry is an indicator for the country's development a multiple investment opportunities are created and contributing in economic growth of the Nation as a whole. As on date several companies are coming up and involving in different construction activities, mid-sized companies specializing activities, small and medium contractors work on sub-contracting basis, and the construction sector at present become the labour-intensive, creating indirect employment opportunities.

Infrastructure sector is playing a pivotal role in economic growth, providing quality of life to the public, which is becoming the base for modernization, westernization thereby becoming part in economical development, and higher employment opportunities, with sustainable growth.

In the union budget has made significant provisions for the growth of construction industry, earns capital expenditure outlay of INR 10 Lakh Crores, with substantial allocation for railways, regional airports, transport infra projects.

The construction is driven by challenges like adopting advancing technologies, time and concerns, workforce issues and other issues like legal issues, government regulations and environmental concerns. We are facing a major problem of inefficiency, due to which some of the projects are facing time and cost overruns.

In conclusion, the construction industry in India is witnessing significant developments and transformations. The Indian construction industry is the third in number of the 13 major economic sectors and is the second-largest job agriculture. The increasing focus on sustainable practices, digitalization, and the use of advanced materials are some of the recent trends that are shaping the industry's future.

Its hardly matters, in what industry we are, certain to have competitors. Whatever the competition may be, our aim is to stand out in the market and provide services to the clients and to the society. I feel it is not that easy to differentiate and build one's own identity, we are in the process of building and creating identity, by taking the challenges that come on our way. The following Five mantras we are targeting to stand alone:

- 1] Finding out new businesses/ventures and spreading the wings in difficult areas/terrains.
- 2] Focusing on obtaining Government contracts.
- 3] Looking on continual Improvement of systems and processes which will give respect in the market.
- 4] To be in the market, we are trying to reinvent ourselves, by adopting new trends, technologies, innovative ideas w.r.t processes. Reinvention is required not only for the business but even in life also. This applies not only in business, but in all aspects of life.
- 5] To withstand in the competition, we are trying to tap the best talent and provisioning the best facilities and empowerment to retain them. Believing in the development of Human Assets, and that will create a cutting edge with the competitors.

Since the coming years are very crucial to us, apart from the above, we are focussing on giving back to the community, by supporting some charities, community development that will allow us to stand different from the competitors.

How important is culture to the business? How do you instil this in your employees.

Every company will have its unique culture, and we are also no exception. Any organization's success requires support of innumerable elements in executing company mission and vision. We believe in TRANSPARENT CULTURE and our employees are the assets for our growth, and they are backbone, and the good organization culture enhances the quality of life and overall well-being of the individuals and as a whole.

At RITHWIK, we see the employees to feel comfortable in free flowing communication, expressing thoughts, ideas, opinions whatever the name it may be, which helps in building an EMOTIONAL ATTACHMENT towards the company.

Our culture has formed the way back from 1999. We are entering into SILVER JUBLY year in 2024, most of our guys were being travelling since then, so naturally, the inheritance of sense of companionship, curiosity to take up responsibilities, the leadership styles, all these factors helped us to create supportive environment.

We believe in promoting transparency, thereby allowing our associates to be owners of their domains/functions, which instils self-confidence, so that they express their voice, and take business decisions wherever it requires. The Management Team continuously interacts with the individual family associates, thereby understand their problems, and building a TRUST.

It is important for a fast-growing organization like us to develop our values, naturally, by participative management style, instead of imposing ideas on the associates arbitrarily. Since 1999, we continuously refer our standards, in meetings, in decisions, even under any busy circumstances also, we will be cross checking that we are not deviating from our beliefs and culture. This can be done through strong communication amongst us, teams development for each and every project, in standing out differently from the competitors.

RITHWIK PROJECTS KEY VALUES AND BELIEFS - HOW IMPORTANT IS CUSTOMER SATISFACTION.
